

July 4 -- canon to the royal martyrs

Ode One. First Tone

The musical score is written on a single treble clef staff with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is primarily composed of quarter and eighth notes, often beamed together. Chordal changes are indicated by letters 'C' and 'D' above the staff. The lyrics are printed below the notes, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across multiple notes. The piece concludes with a double bar line.

Ode Four

The fall of a king - dom, the death of a Sov' - reign, shook the land with ter - ror and grief; the pow - er of Christ shown in love and for - give - ness ex - alt - ed you from this world to ev - er - last - ing joy.

Eu - gene the phy - si - cian while held with his Sov' - reigns tend - ed to the suff' - ring and sick; he light - ened his bonds with his mer - cy to oth - ers and crowned all by lay - ing down his life for those he loved.

Ex - ceed - ing des - crip - tion, O ven' - ra - ble Mar - tyrs,

C D
were the griefs and tor - ments ye bare; but past un - der - stand - ing

are al - so the grac - es where - with ye are rec - om - pensed

by Him Whose Cross ye loved.

In thee we seek ref - uge in per - ils and sor - rows,

C D
who hast borne the Pearl of Great Price; for thou me - di - a - test an in - fin - ite glad - ness that noth - ing can take a - way,

C D
O Moth - er of our Life.

in thee is nev - er quenched; for thou dost shine with God's great de - filed by the de - filed, ye a - bode pure and no - ble.

C D

C A↓ Un. D

Des - cen - ding un - to great - er suff' - rings each day, ye were the blight of earth - ly lusts, ye were ripe for the Heav - ens.

C D

C A Un. D
 E - lec - ted to a high - er glo - ry and state, from on

C A Un. D
 The pres - ence of thy Son is trem - bling and dread; yet in the cer - tain - ty and pledge of His mer - cy to sin - ners.

C D

Ode Seven

Stripped nak - ed of all earth - ly au - thor - i - ty, ye yet were a prick-ing thorn to the dev-il's slaves, who longed to quell the reign of Christ, which still shone forth res-plen - dent-ly in you all. Un-ab - le to kill the Lord in the Heav - ens, they quenched His lights up-on the earth.

Pre-sent - ed with oc-ca - sion to save thy-self by flee-ing thy

Sov'-reigns' fate, stead-fast thou didst stand, con-firm-ing time and time a-gain thy mag-na-ni-mous faith - ful-ness un-to them, for which thou art crowned with them in the Heav - ens, O A - na - sta - sia great of soul.

O An - na, thou didst see thy great La - dy fall from pow - er and end - less wealth to cap - ti - vi - ty; but be - ing bound to her by love, and be - hold - ing her great - ness in suf - fer - ings, thou clav - est to her as ev - er a - fore - time, ac - count - ing her a queen in Christ.

As dark - ness fell more ter - ri - bly on the land, the Mar - tyrs set all their trust on thy light a - lone, which no ca - lam - i - ty can quench;

and, O Vir - gin, thou shon - est up - on their hopes, in - spir - ing them with in - vin - ci - ble cour - age in Him to Whom thou gav - est birth.

Ode Eight

In - no - cence and god - li - ness, min - gled to - geth - er, a - dorned

C D
your souls, O chil - dren, ye five e - lect of the Sav - iour;

Un. D C
and the hat - red and spite of the god - less could not move you to

D C D
wick - ed - ness, but stab - lished se - cure in the love of God, ye tri - umphed.

D
Tem - pered in the fur - nace of burn - ing af - flic - tions, by them

C D
ye have been ren - dered a shar - pened sword forged in Heav - en,

Un. D C
which with ter - ri - ble blows driv - eth off the hordes of de - mons from

D C D
ev' - ry soul in - vok - ing your suc - cour, O Mar - tyrs great in mer - cy.

D
 Once the gems and pearls of high of - fice be-decked you, but noth - ing like the sigh - ings and spark-ling tears of your bon - dage
C D
Un. D C
 which ye will - ing-ly chose, wish-ing to par-take of all that your
D C D
 Sov'-reigns bare; and ye were per-fect - ed with them in God-like beau - ty.
D
 Shak-ing off the er - ror de - ny - ing thee hon - our, the god -
C D
 ly Al - ex - an - dra re - vered thee great - ly, O La - dy,
Un. D C
 with an Orth o - dox mind and com-mit-ted her whole soul to thy
D C D
 sov'-reign care; and thou didst ex-alt her from Emp-ress un-to Mar - tyr.

Ode Nine

D C D
A-noin-ted as Mar - tyrs in the unc-tion of your blood, ye reign as

G D
kings for ev - er in Christ Je - sus, Whose Pas - sion and will-ing Death

C D
ye em-braced with val-iant faith; no trea-son can ov-er-throw your reign; no blow can shake your King - dom; ye have found the rest on high with the Saints in glad - ness.

C D

D C D
The Saints whom ye hon - oured and once glo-ri-fied on earth re-ceived you

G D
with ex-ceed - ing joy and glad - ness when ye too had run the course of the pat-ience of the Saints; the An-gels whose meek-ness ye dis-played es-cort-ed

C D

C D
you in glo - ry; and the King Whose Cross ye bare made you heirs and chil - dren.

Be-fore, ye had use of vast im-per-ial trea-su-ries; but now the ve-ry gates of ho-ly Heav-en, the rich- es of grace di-vine, have been op-ened wide to you. As once ev'-ry pau-per in dis-tress had ac-cess to your mer-cies, so be gra-cious un-to us seek-ing your com-pas-sion.

O strength of the Mar-tyrs, Queen and Sov'-reign of the Saints, O balm and con-sol-a-tion of the suff'-ring and hope of those dead in sin, lend thine ear un-to our cries. Be-hold the dis-tress and bit-ter woe of them thy

Son hath ran-somed; wash a-way our sins and griefs; save our souls, O Vir-gin.
